jaya jaya he mahiṣāsūramardini ramyakapardini śailasute ॥ Who with a single utterance of the mantra "Hum" (meaning cut the ego) reduced Sinful Eyes into a hundred bits of ash. Who in the battle with the thoughts completely dried up the Seed of Desire and the thoughts born from him which were like vines rising from seeds. Who offered Self-Conceit and Self-Deprecations as the great oblations to the Auspicious Consciousness of Infinite Goodness (Śiva) thus satisfying and delighting the disembodied spirits attending him.
Victory, Victory to you! Oh Slayer of the Great Ego, Oh One with beautiful braided hair, Oh Goddess of Inspiration (Daughter of the Mountains).

Who is the continuous repetition of shouts of "Jaya Jaya" Victory, Victory! Who is the resounding sound of "Jaya" at the time of victory, The supreme song of praise, Who is worshipped in the universe as that which is beyond, The tinkling sound of whose anklets captivates even the Lord of Beings, Who acts as half of the Cosmic Dancer, who is both male and female, who leads the Universal Play, delighting in the
